POLITICAL SPEAKING.

Major ELLIOTT M. BRAXTON, the Conservative candidate for Congress from this District, and WILLIAM KILGOUR, Esq., will address the citizens of Alexandria at LIBERTY HALL TO-NIGHT.

IN MEMORIAM.

MAYOR LATHAM'S REMARKS.—The following is a report of the remarks made by Mayor Latham upon taking the chair at the Citizens' Meeting in Liberty Hall on Friday last:

Fellow-citizens, in assuming the duties of the chair at this meeting, permit me to tender my heartfelt thanks for the great honor conferred. The announcement of the death of General Robert E. Lee, came upon our people like the lightning's flash from a cloudless sky, but it is true, and we are assembled here to-day with hearts bowed down with sorrow to manifest our feeling at this great public calamity. The name and character of General Robert E. Lee do not belong to this State alone, but to the entire country. His virtues and his elevated private worth will adorn the pages of history as bright examples of the Christian gentleman. Proudly should this city feel, and pre-eminently should it stand above all other cities of the world, to have had the greatest man of the nineteenth century and the greatest man of the nineteenth century as the friends and companions of our fathers and of ourselves. Washington, Lee, and I shall add Jackson, the three brightest names that adorn the annals of time, "Virginia, the mother of States and of Statesmen," should gratefully attribute the most inspiring State, but when we add to that glorious trio, "The mother of Washington and Lee," should it not feel the proud claim to overflowing and place her upon a pinnacle so high that all others appear as pygmies in comparison. In two of the most trying epochs of the country's history Virginia has presented the two most illustrious chieftains of the time; and should occasion require another, which God in his mercy forbid, she will again answer the requisition and present the hero of the day. It is inherent in her people, and indigenous to their blood to produce such material for great performances, either in the forum or the field. Then, fellow-citizens, is it not peculiarly our duty as Virginians and Alexandrians to exhibit in this unostentatious way our sincere sympathy for the bereaved family and unite with the other citizens of the State and the country in testifying our high appreciation of his virtues and his worth. I await any suggestions that may be submitted.

In the Corporation Court, yesterday, F. L. Smith, Esq., from the committee appointed on October 14, 1870, to prepare resolutions expressive of the respect for the memory of Gen. Robert E. Lee, held by the Bar and officers of the Court, and their sorrow at his death, reported the following, which were ordered to be spread upon the minutes, a copy furnished the Alexandria and Richmond papers, and a copy sent the family of General Lee:

Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to remove from the midst of us Virginia's best loved and most honored son, General Robert Edward Lee, the Bar and the officers of this Court mingle their sorrows with the lamentations of the bereaved and smitten people, and in sympathy with our fellow citizens of the South, and the good and just of all lands, unite in the sincere expression of respect for the memory of the patriot, chieftain and Christian hero; therefore,

Resolved, That in the dispensation which we are now called to mourn we realize that a good and great man has fallen, whose like we shall never see again.

Resolved, That as long as brilliant talents, heroic virtues, spotless integrity and devoted piety are appreciated, the life of Robert E. Lee, as beautiful and sublime as it was good and useful, will be enshrined in the affections of the people, an imperishable memorial of his excellence.

Resolved, That while we tender our profound sympathy to his bereaved and chastened family we feel assured that they, inspired by his example, illustrating the glorious truth that human virtue may indeed be equal to human calamity, will, while passing under the rod, exhibit the blessed difference between the sufferer that mourns and the spirit that murmurs.

Resolved, That his Honor, the Judge, be requested to order this faint tribute to the memory of the illustrious deceased to be spread upon the minutes of the Court, and that the clerk of the Court forward a certified copy of these resolutions to the family of General Lee, and cause the same to be published in the Alexandria and Richmond papers.

Teste: MORTON MARYE, Clerk.

FAIRFAX COUNTY.—At a mass meeting of the citizens of Fairfax County, irrespective of party, on Monday the 17th day of October, 1870, the following resolutions, offered by Col. M. D. Ball, were on motion unanimously adopted:

Whereas, we, the people of Fairfax County, are desirous of placing upon record our admiration of the virtues and exalted character of our former fellow citizen and late distinguished chieftain, Gen. Robert E. Lee, and our profound sorrow for his death, be it therefore

Resolved, I, That we, the people of Fairfax County, proud of the association of our country with the name and family of the noble man whose death is now so universally deplored, deem it proper to give public expression to our own peculiar grief at his loss, and our sense of the wonderful virtues which adorned his character.

Resolved, II, That while we know that no action of ours can add lustre to the name that has gone down to history bright with all that sanctifies and illustrates greatness, yet we desire, for our own honor, to record this feeble evidence of our appreciation of the worth of Robert E. Lee.

Resolved, III, That while lamenting in anguish of heart the loss of our beloved Chief, we remember, with satisfaction, his noble example, which we shall ever cherish among the dearest and most sacred memories of our lives.

Resolved, IV, That the Chairman of this meeting be requested to forward copies of these resolutions to Mrs. Mary Custis Lee, to the Alexandria Gazette for publication, and to the clerk of the county court of Fairfax for record among the archives of the county.

Teste: HENRY W. THOMAS, Chairman.

JAMES M. LOVE, Secretary.

SECOND WARD RADICALS.—A called meeting of the 2nd Ward Republican Club was held last evening at the school room, corner of Pitt and Princess streets, and was organized by electing C. W. DeWitt, President pro tem, and P. A. Breen, Secretary. The object of the meeting having been stated, the following eight persons were appointed a Vigilance Committee for said Ward:—Larkin Patten, P. A. Breen, John McDaniel, John Snopce, Levi Potter, Thomas Carroll, M. D. Williams and G. W. Hobday. The meeting then proceeded to the election of delegates to represent said Ward in the County Convention to be held at the Court House to-day. Whereupon W. D. Williams, George W. Hobday, John McDaniel, Robert C. Armstrong, and C. W. DeWitt, were elected said delegates, with power to the attending delegates to cast the full vote of the Ward. After a few remarks the following preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted:

Whereas, knowing that the antecedents and present political position of Elliott M. Braxton are opposed to what we believe the best interests of the masses of the people require, and knowing him to be affiliated with those who in times past opposed protection to home industry, and prevented the development of the mineral wealth of the State, in consequence of which countless millions now lie dormant, buried in the bosom of our mother earth unavailable to any one; therefore,

Resolved, That as the Republicans of the 2d Ward passed a resolution promising their support at the coming election to the Hon. Lewis McKenzie for Congress, and inviting republicans of other localities to go and do like with, we the republicans of the 2d Ward cheerfully accept the invitation and hand of fellowship proffered us by our political brothers, promising to put our shoulders to the wheel and make a united and earnest effort to free ourselves from political thralldom.

Next in order the following preamble and resolutions were offered by R. C. Armstrong, which after a short discussion were adopted with one dissenting vote.

Whereas, circumstances render it impossible for a portion of our citizens to secure water privileges; and whereas this is supposed to be the only city in the United States possessed of water works that does not also possess a limited number of free hydrants; and whereas the property of private individuals, and is no more entitled to be exempt from taxation than other descriptions of property,

Resolved, That inquiry be instituted as to the amount of net revenue, taxation included, is derived by the city from the Alexandria water works on property within our incorporated limits, and for use of our streets and thoroughfares after deducting the value of water used through fire plugs for benefit of insured property.

Resolved, That we respectfully ask our members in the City Council to adopt such measures as will secure the benefit of a few free hydrants in each Ward to the people thereof.

The meeting was devoted almost entirely to business, very little in the way of speeches being done. The meeting then on motion adjourned to meet again on Wednesday evening the 28th inst. at the same time and place.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

SPREAD THE TRUTH.

Some medical men insist that it is undignified to advertise a remedy, however valuable it may be. Queer reasoning this. It is like saying that an article which the world needs should be hid in a corner—that benefits and blessings may be too widely diffused—that the means of protecting and restoring health should be a close monopoly, and not accessible to all. The argument is bad. It is worse than that; it is inhuman. Suppose Hostetter's Stomach Bitters—an absolute specific for dyspepsia, biliousness, and general debility—has been known beyond the repertoire of the family, what would have been the consequence? Instead of curing and invigorating millions, the good effects of the preparation would have been confined to a comparative few. There is the highest authority for saying that light should not be hid under a bushel; that whatever is excellent should be placed as a city on a hill, where all men can take cognizance of it. It is upon this principle that the Bitters have been advertised, and continue to be advertised in every newspaper of prominence in the western hemisphere, and that the spontaneous testimonials in its favor have been translated into all written languages. Thousands enjoy perfect health to-day who would have languished in benighted sickness if the new papers had not spread the truth with regard to this unequalled invigorant and corrective tonic. Suppose proof has been resorted to this publicity. Is that any argument against it? If the public health has been protected; if lives have been saved; if the feeble have been strengthened and the sick restored, great good has been accomplished; and who so mean as to grudge to exertions thus directed their fair reward? oct 17—cowlw

SPEER'S PORT WINE.

The Port grape is now cultivated in this country for a wine unequalled by any other, in its mellow juiciness, richness of flavor and brilliancy of color. The grape has been brought to a perfection never obtained in Portugal by Mr. A. Speer, in his vineyard, New Jersey. Physicians say it is superior to imported Port for invalids, and in summer is more agreeable and refreshing than claret. Clergymen use it for its purity as a communion wine, while the most fashionable families drink it as a dinner wine.—[N. Y. Tribune. oct 17-1w

CLEAN AND HARMLESS AS WATER.

NATTAN'S CRYSTAL DISCOVERY FOR THE HAIR.

A Perfectly Clear Preparation, for Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color and Youthful Appearance, to Eradicate and Prevent Dandruff, to Promote the Growth of the Hair, and Stop its Falling.

It is perfectly harmless and entirely free from any poisonous substance, and will therefore take the place of all the dirty and unpleasant preparations now in use. It is warranted to contain no Lead, Nitrate of Silver or Sulphur, consequently it is perfectly free from all the objections so justly urged against the muddy and sulphurous compounds. In everything in which the articles now in use are objectionable Crystal Discovery is perfect.

Clear and clean as water, it does not soil the clothes or scalp, is agreeably perfumed, and makes one of the best dressings for the hair in use. It restores the color of the hair more perfectly and uniformly than any other preparation, and always does so in from three to ten days. Virtually feeding the roots of the hair with all the nourishing qualities necessary to its growth and healthy condition, it restores the decayed, and induces a new growth of the hair more positively than anything else. The application of this wonderful discovery also produces a pleasant and cooling effect on the scalp, and gives harsh, wiry and brash hair a glossy and elegant appearance.

Special attention is called to the fact that it will positively give entire satisfaction in every case. Our aim is not to induce you to buy a single bottle, but to have you use it constantly.

For sale by druggists and fancy dealers generally. Liberal discounts to dealers.
